

JENS PERSSON

BARITONE

BIOGRAPHY LONG VERSION

Jens Persson is a young lyric baryton with a powerful and warm timbre. He studied at The Royal College of Music and took his master's degree in spring 2013 at the University College of Opera in Stockholm. He appeared as Signor Geronimo in Il matrimonio segreto at Drottningholms Slottsteater in the examination production.

Mr Persson has been employed at the Royal Swedish Opera in Stockholm since 2014 where he has been especially highly regarded for the interpretation of the scamp Papageno in The Magic Flute. Other roles at the Royal Swedish Opera are Figaro in the revival of The Barber from Seville, Borov in a new production of Fedora (Umberto Giordano), Schaunard in La Bohème, Shepherd, Doctor in Pelléas et Mélisande, Elviro in Xerxes, Guglielmo Cecil in Maria Stuarda and Dancaïre in Carmen.

This season Jens will be making his debut as Dandino in La Cenerentola (Rossini), participate in the revival of Fedora, the revival of Jenufa and sing the Sacristan in Tosca.

Other engagements worth mentioning are Demetrius in A Midsummer Night's Dream at Läckö Slott and participated in La Traviata in Malmö Opera's regional tour. He was also invited to Landestheater Detmold in Germany for Il Viaggio a Reims (Rossini). At Drottningholms Slottsteater he has sung among other roles Geronimo in Il matrimonio segreto (Cimaros), at Skånska Operan he has sung Guglielmo in Così fan tutte.

Mr Persson is frequently engaged to sing recitals and church concerts, the repertoire includes Requiem by Mozart, Fauré and Durufly, Petite Messe Solennelle by Rossini, Songs of Travel by Vaughan Williams, Johannespassion by Bach and Carmina Burana.

Jens Persson has been granted Hans Dalborgs Musikstipendium 2012, Kungliga Musikaliska Akademiens Nationella 2012 and ÅF – Ingemansson's Music Scholarship 2011. In 2010 he was second best at Lied-Wettbewerb der GFF 2010 Lieder und Ensembles von Robert Schumann.

JENS PERSSON
BARITONE

BIOGRAPHY SHORT VERSION

Jens Persson is a young lyric baryton with a powerful and warm timbre. He studied at The Royal College of Music and took his master's degree in spring 2013 at the University College of Opera in Stockholm. He appeared as Signor Geronimo in Il matrimonio segreto at Drottningholms Slottsteater in the examination production.

Mr Persson has been employed at the Royal Swedish Opera in Stockholm since 2014 where he has been especially highly regarded for the interpretation of the scamp Papageno in The Magic Flute. Other roles at the Royal Swedish Opera are Figaro in the revival of The Barber from Seville, Borov in a new production of Fedora (Umberto Giordano), Schaunard in La Bohème, Shepherd, Doctor in Pelléas et Mélisande, Elviro in Xerxes, Guglielmo Cecil in Maria Stuarda and Dancaïre in Carmen.

This season Jens will be making his debut as Dandino in La Cenerentola (Rossini), participate in the revival of Fedora, the revival of Jenufa and sing the Sacristan in Tosca.